The Plateau Valley Friends of the Library Has a New Web Site

The Plateau Valley Friends of the Library has gone live with a new web site, pvfl.org. Please take time to visit our site frequently as the site will be updated often.

On the site interested viewers can find links to our history, our purpose, our Board of Trustees, how to join our organization and donate to the Plateau Valley Friends of the Library, how to contact the Friends of the Library, and links to our financial statements of the previous year end and a link to a copy of this brochure.

For those who are interested, soon we will have links to information about our Book Group activities. The Book Group has been on hiatus due to the ongoing Covid-19 situation. We are all looking forward to a time when we will be able to get together with our fellow readers to discuss reading selections and enjoy each other's company.

There will also be future links to information about book collections for the next Fourth of July book Sale. The Friends will be accepting book donations, sorting them and preparing for the Book Sale on an ongoing basis throughout the year.

About the Plateau Valley Friends of the Library

Our Twenty-Fourth Year

The Plateau Valley Friends of the Library (Friends) is celebrating its thirtieth year of support of literacy and library services in Plateau Valley. On January 23, 1991 the Plateau Valley Friends of the Library was registered as a nonprofit corporation with the Colorado Secretary of State, for the purpose, as stated in the By-Laws of the Corporation:

The purpose of the corporation shall be to maintain an association of persons interested in the Collbran Branch of the Mesa County Public Library; to focus public attention on this library; to stimulate the use of the library's resources and services; to receive and encourage gifts, endowments, and bequests to the library; to support and cooperate with the community; and to support the freedom to read as expressed in the American Library Association Bill of Rights. Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

The entity was formed by a group of dedicated library patrons who were committed to finding a new location for the Collbran Branch Library. The Plateau Valley Friends of the Library was instrumental in finding the library's current home in the Stockmens' Bank Building at 111 Main Street in Collbran and Friends members negotiated the transfer of the ownership of the building from then owners Mike Martin and his family to the Town of Collbran.

The building which houses the Library, Stockmens' Bank Building, was built in 1929.

The Collbran Branch Library has been providing library services to the public for thirty years at its 111 Main Street location and is getting stronger every year. The Friends have remained as supporters of the Library and continue to support literacy as was its intent from its inception in 1991.

Member dues, donations and grants are used by the Friends to support programming and events in conjunction with the Collbran Branch of Mesa County Libraries and supports library services in Mesa, Colorado at the Mesa Leaf Library.
